HR COCO

Specialty: Forensic sciences and technology

Your skeleton key to the RDU's Forensic Sciences division, and the caretaker of the RDU Crime Lab, the Morgue, the RIT R&D division, and the RDU data centers (the Mainframe, the Esper Network, the Denabase, and the Archives). Coco can help with the collection and analysis of physical, medical, technological, and digital evidence from crime scenes, casework, suspects, or victims. You can also task RIT to mine the data centers, make Esper Network inquiries, or research into known and unknown Replicant threats and other monitored entities and technologies. Coco can also perform medical treatments and emergency procedures.

HR QUELL

Specialty: Megacorps and the Replicant Industry

As the RDU liaison at Wallace Corp, Quell will facilitate all your Wallace Records Library and Memory Vault inquiries. Beyond that, it's her job to know everything you know about the Replicant Industry, and everything you don't. She has inexhaustible resources with eyes and ears everywhere, so she may help you to navigate the industry, big business, and any megacorp machinations... but only if it serves her agenda. Either way, expect her to be pulling strings behind the scenes, helping or hampering you sight unseen. And rest assured, if she breaks open a case or seals it shut forever, it's at the behest of Niander himself.

HR DOC BADGER

Specialty: Black markets and the streets

As one of Sector 5's most trusted hawkers, Doc Badger is the guy who can get you whatever you need. Buy whatever you've got. And sell whatever you want to get rid of. Even if all you're looking to buy or sell is information. Doc is also a tech savant and gifted refurbisher, so give him enough time and he can fix or break just about anything. And being plugged into the streets and servicing needs big and small among the lower floors, his observant eyes and open ears are always picking up on a few secrets he's more than willing to share for the right price.

HR CORGI

Specialty: Criminal underworld

As anarchy swept the streets and the impoverished struggled for basic necessities, some organized crime stepped up as peacekeepers and began running essential goods and services through the now prevalent bazaars. As one of Hawker Circle's beloved black market suppliers and benefactors, Corgi is plugged into every corner of the criminal underworld. A heart defect hampered his dreams of becoming a Blade Runner, so being an informant is Corgi's way of wearing a badge. Even still, he follows a strict code, so Corgi only informs on the big bads – traffickers, drug dealers, killers, even human supremacists or the Replicant Underground. Anyone bringing toxins, terror, and discontent to his streets.

H R JELLE SCHYLAR

Specialty: Society gossip from high, low, and below

The KILL magazine is the top gossip rag, exposing and exploiting the very worst of humanity for profit. The infamous publisher is a genius at manipulating the ignorant masses by spewing venom, spreading conspiracies, and digging through skeleton closets for scandals and controversies with ruthless glee. Mob bosses. Movie stars. Megacorps. No one is safe from his insufferable snooping and a well-paid whisper network trafficking the best-kept secrets in salacious detail. Dealing with Jelle is a dangerous game, yet nobody knows the truths and lies being spread throughout the city better than him. Just don't cross him, or you'll be his next headline.

H R AMARA JHAVERI

Specialty: Law and politics

Though most politicians can be bought, Assistant DA Amara Jhaveri is too rich to waver from her war against the corruption deep-seated in the city. Born among the off-world elite, Amara spit out her silver spoon, rejected her peers, and emigrated to Earth to correct the many inequalities she could no longer stomach. So it doesn't matter what red tape needs cutting. What buttons need pushing. What bridges need building or burning. Search warrants. Subpoenas. Wire taps. Tails and security details. If it's in the name of justice, Amara will bullishly defend your right to take anybody down a peg or two.

HR DISPATCH

Specialty: LAPD

Need help? Just call Dispatch, the seasoned DiJi manning the RDU switchboard. Being the sole conduit for all internal comms and hosting multiple conversations in tandem at all times, Dispatch knows the ins and outs of the LAPD better than anyone and she's always there to answer your call. Need drone surveillance to track a fugitive on the run? An APB on a missing person? Special Ops support on a hostage situation? Emergency care and transport for an officer down? For situations dire or humdrum, Dispatch can come to the rescue – or at least patch you through to somebody who can.

LAPD PROFILE DATABASE

HR HAN JI KWON

Specialty: News old and new

The Independent Sentinel is one of the most esteemed newspapers in the system, boasting an army of journalistic crusaders and vast archives spanning two centuries of first-rate investigative reporting. Among them, Han Ji Kwon is a senior reporter on LA's crime beat and a constant shadow, tracking your every mission and misstep. As an unbiased reporter, HJ may obsessively seek to defend or dismantle the RDU depending upon the story and circumstances. Even still, he can be trusted to never obstruct justice or break confidentiality, often sharing the Sentinel's resources to aid RDU investigations in ways only a journalist with integrity and diplomatic impunity can.
